To Whom it May Concern

This is to certify that Mr. Gopal Acharya permanent resident of Airawoti Rural Municipality 1 Dangbang Pyuthan had worked on the position of Livestock Technician from 3 November, 2019 to 12 November, 2022 under the "Generating Opportunities in Agriculture and Livelihoods (GOAL-II) Project" funded by Australian Aid and Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) and jointly implemented by ADRA Nepal, Rupantaran and Fulvari Integrated Rural Development Organization Nepal in Swargadwari Municipality of Pyuthan district.

During the tenure he had demonstrated high level of satisfactory results against his roles and responsibility. Majorly he had contributed in providing lead role in the designing of field activities on livestock promotion interventions and innovative technologies. In addition to this, he had also played a crucial role in data collection, compilation and analysis including monthly progress report preparation and case story collection and compilation. He had well maintained disaggregated data of 60 farmer groups (1288 members). He also played role in field staff management, supervise their roles and provide technical support as and when needed.

During his engagement in the organization we found him a dedicative, disciplined, and professional staff member towards the assigned role and responsibility. Working with us, he had demonstrated himself as one of a diligent and truthful staff. His working with the team and leadership skill was quite satisfactory, very helpful and highly appraised by the team. His ability to lead/coordinate with multi-disciplinary team of project and with the local governments was profound.

FIRDO Nepal wishes every success in his future endeavors.
