LETTER OF APPRECIATION

It is my great pleasure to express few words in favor of Mr. Arjun Bhujel, Manager of Falcon Company Pvt. Ltd. As an Executive Director of this organization, I have remarked him as an innovative, punctual professional and one of the best professionals in this organization. He is an outstanding dynamic individual in this organization. Currently, he is looking after the Poultry Breeding Farm and Veterinary Polyclinic of the organization; and is very technically sound in the field of poultry management system. He has been actively participating in all the activities of the organization like managing animal health camps, and is involved in the preparation of awareness materials like brochures, pamphlets and is participating different meeting and workshops representing the organization. Moreover, his innovativeness and logical thinking deserves special consideration.

Mr. Bhujel joined this organization since August 16, 2017 with the monthly income NPR. 20,000.00 (Nepali rupees Twenty thousand only). As a member of multidisciplinary team in the organization, he is equally comfortable working alone or with a team and has fluency in English language. Additionally, he has the capability to understand and express ideas clearly, and have excellent motivation and analytical thinking as well as intellectual independence. I am sure he will find more opportunities whose talents will only shine further through any of his future programs.

I wish him very best in his future endeavors.

Thanking You,

Dr. Rupendra Chaulagain, (M.V.Sc.; PhD Scholar)

Executive Director
